

September 10, 2009 07:05 am

Harbor Springs sweeps X-C meet

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Harbor Springs put four runners in the top seven to win the girls' race in the East Jordan Invitational on Wednesday.

The Rams finished with 31 points. Grand Traverse Academy was second with 82 and St. Francis third with 83.

Cheboygan's Tori Overton was the overall winner in 20:45.6. She was followed by St. Francis freshman Maddy Danz (20:45.8), Grand Traverse Academy's Rowan Estnick (21:16.5) and four Harbor Springs runners -- Kendal McCarthy (21:28.3), Katie Hoffman (21:51.9), Nicole Love (21:53.7) and Maddie Buntin (21:56.2). Traverse City Christian's Emily Ritsema (22:05.7), Bellaire's Emily Kwekel (22:19.8) and Central Lake's Sarah Lambert (22:21.1) rounded out the top 10.

Harbor Springs won the boys' race with 27 points. Roscommon was second at 68 and Central Lake third at 98.

Elk Rapids' Matt Moss was the overall winner in 17:33.6. He was followed by Harbor Springs' Nick Cooper (17:38.1) and Pat Frank (17:52), Central Lake's Jordan Becker (17:57), Harbor Springs' Mike Sydow (18:07.2), Cheboygan's Seth Duncan (18:11.7), Harbor Springs' Nate Schiefer (18:14.5), Roscommon's Dan Crowe (18:20.4) and Evan Thomas (18:33.9) and Harbor Springs' Connor Buntin (18:46.1).